

The background of the page is a large, light gray watermark of the coat of arms of Huimilpan. The coat of arms is shield-shaped and divided into four quadrants. The top-left quadrant shows a sun with a cross above it. The top-right quadrant shows a cornucopia overflowing with corn. The bottom-left quadrant shows a man in traditional attire holding a staff. The bottom-right quadrant shows a sword. A banner across the middle of the shield reads "Julio-10-1529". Below the shield is a depiction of a church building.
